Plasticizer / Bisphenol A / Phtalate

Dear Mr. Witsenburg,

Thank you very much for your inquiry.

On the basis of the information provided by our raw material suppliers, we are in the position to confirm, that bisphenol A and Phtalate are not used and not intentionally added in the products delivered by Jokey.

Apart from the compliance with the Bedarfsgegenständeverordnung (BedGgStV) for the manufacture of packaging in terms of the German Lebensmittel- und Futtermittelgesetzbuchs LFGB (for our production stage), our products as well as the additives of the materials used correspond to the EC framework regulation 1935/2004.

If you have any further questions on this topic, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Yours sincerely,

jokey Plastik Wipperfürth GmbH
